

DIVIDEND DISTRIBUTION POLICY

1. Preamble

This Policy is formulated in accordance with Regulation 43A of the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements), 2015. Regulation 43A of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015, (“SEBI Regulations”) requires top one thousand listed companies (by market capitalization as on March 31 of every FY) to formulate a Dividend Distribution Policy, which shall be disclosed in its Annual Report and on its website.

2. Introduction

The Board of the Company considers it appropriate to adopt a Policy that would help establishing the principles to ascertain amounts that can be distributed to shareholders as dividend by the Company as well as enable the Company strike balance between pay-out and retained earnings, in order to address future needs of the Company.

The philosophy of the Company is to maximize the shareholders’ wealth in the Company through various means. The Company believes that driving growth creates maximum shareholder value. Thus, the Company would first utilise its profits for working capital requirements, capital expenditure to meet expansion needs, reducing debt from its books of accounts, earmarking reserves for inorganic growth opportunities and thereafter distribute the surplus profits in the form of dividend to the shareholders.

3. Parameters for Declaration of Dividend

The regulation further prescribed that, the Policy shall include the following parameters:

- a. the circumstances under which the shareholders of the listed entities may or may not expect dividend;
- b. the financial parameters that shall be considered while declaring dividend;
- c. internal and external factors that shall be considered for declaration of dividend;
- d. policy as to how the retained earnings shall be utilized; and
- e. parameters that shall be adopted with regard to various classes of shares:

Provided that if the listed entity proposes to declare dividend on the basis of parameters in addition to clauses (a) to (e) or proposes to change such additional parameters or the dividend distribution policy contained in any of the parameters, it shall disclose such changes along with the rationale for the same in its annual report and on its website.

4. Circumstances under which the shareholders may or may not expect Dividend

The Board has the discretion to recommend a higher or lower dividend keeping in mind the business considerations and other corporate actions which result in high utilization of cash. The shareholders may expect dividend for any financial year if there is surplus after taking into account the adjustments for previous years' losses if any, depreciation and all other statutory adjustments as mandated by various legal statutes. The Board may not recommend dividend in the event of insufficient profits after adjustments as required by statutory provisions and / or if it determines, considering the circumstances, that funds of the company need to be conserved for business needs or Significantly higher working capital requirements adversely impacting free cash flow; or Whenever it undertakes any acquisitions or joint ventures requiring significant allocation of capital; or Whenever it undertakes or proposes to undertake a significant expansion project requiring higher allocation of capital.

5. Financial Parameters / Internal Factors

The Board of Directors of the Company would consider the following financial parameters before declaring or recommending dividend to shareholders:

- a. Consolidated net operating profit after tax;
- b. Committed and projected cash flow needs owing to forecasted capital expenditure, anticipated investments in M&A and working capital requirements for current and projected periods;
- c. Capital expenditure requirements;
- d. Resources required to fund acquisitions and / or new businesses
- e. Cash flow required to meet contingencies; Reported and Projected statements of Free Cash Flow generation;
- f. Outstanding borrowings;
- g. Past Dividend Trends;
- h. Current and Projected Debt-raising capacity;
- i. The macro economic factors and the general business environment.

6. External Factors

The Board of Directors of the Company would consider the following external factors before declaring or recommending dividend to shareholders:

- a. Prevailing legal requirements, regulatory conditions or restrictions laid down under the Applicable Laws including tax laws;
- b. Dividend pay-out ratios of companies in the same industry;
- c. Policy decisions of the government that may affect

7. Utilization of Retained Earnings

The Company may declare dividend out of the profits of the Company for the year or out of the profits for any previous year or years or out of the free reserves available for distribution of Dividend, after having due regard to the parameters laid down in this Policy.

8. Parameters adopted with regard to various classes of shares

Currently, the Company has only one class of shares viz. equity. In the absence of any other class of equity shares and/or equity shares with differential voting rights, the entire distributable profit for the purpose of declaration/recommendation of dividend will be considered for the existing class of equity shares only.

9. Conflict in Policy

In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this Policy and of the Act or Listing Regulations or any other statutory enactments, rules, the provisions of such Act or Listing Regulations or statutory enactments, rules shall prevail over and automatically be applicable to this Policy and the relevant provisions of the Policy would be amended/modified in due course to make it consistent with the law.

10. Disclosure of Policy

As per the SEBI Regulations, the Dividend Distribution Policy shall be disclosed in the Annual Report of the Company and placed on the Company's website, www.yashoindustries.com.

11. Review

This Policy may be reviewed and amended periodically as and when required by the Board to ensure that it meets the objectives of the relevant legislation and needs of the Company and remains effective. The Board has the right to change/ amend the policy as may be expedient taking into account the law for the time being in force.

12. Amendments

Any subsequent amendment / modification in the Companies Act, 2013, SEBI Regulations and / or other applicable laws in this regard shall automatically apply to this Policy. The revision/ amendment to the Policy, if any, shall be subject to the approval of the Board, if and when practical difficulties are encountered.
